

Membership

IREM membership connects you to a support network of people, ideas, and resources to help you work smarter, achieve more, and advance on the path to success. Join IREM to make an immediate difference in your comfort level and access to knowledge, at any career stage.

Learn more about our exclusive member discounts and benefits. We invite current members to refer friends and colleagues today.

Membership Types:

Credentials

- For asset or property managers, residential site managers or commercial site managers
- Secure higher compensation, generate and retain business
- Earn recognition in the industry as a trusted professional

Learn More

Associate Membership

- For individuals engaged in the real estate industry. Form an immediate connection with the IREM community
- Enjoy instant discounts on courses and publications
- Make personal connections and business referrals through in-person events and members-only online forums

Learn More

Student Membership

- For full-time college student looking to enter the real estate management field
- Gain access to involvement with chapters, forums, and a network of future employers
- Receive instant discounts to courses, publications, and professional development material

Learn More

Academic Membership

- For full-time or part-time instructor teaching real estate management or related subjects
- Gain access to involvement with chapters, forums, and a network of future employers
- Receive the best education, resources, and publications in real estate management

Learn More